

Course Overview:

In today's dynamic business environment, understanding and mitigating financial risks in contracts is critical to safeguarding organizational interests. This intermediate course equips professionals involved in contract management with the tools and techniques needed to identify, assess, and manage financial risks. Designed for those handling or reviewing contracts, the program bridges financial analysis with strategic risk mitigation to enhance overall contract performance and compliance.

Course Objective:

- Identify various financial risks present in contracts and understand their implications.
- Apply financial analysis tools such as ratio analysis and cost-benefit evaluations to assess risk.
- Develop and implement effective risk mitigation strategies through contractual clauses and negotiation.
- Enhance contract performance monitoring and integrate early risk detection measures.
- Strengthen collaboration with legal and financial teams to manage stakeholder concerns effectively.

Course Outline:Module 1: Understanding Financial Risks in Contracts

- Types of financial risks
- Impacts on contractual obligations
- Risk identification frameworks

Module 2: Financial Analysis in Contract Risk Assessment

- Analyzing financial aspects of contract terms
- Key financial ratios for risk detection
- Conducting cost-benefit analysis

Module 3: Risk Mitigation Strategies

- Structuring effective risk mitigation plans
- Drafting risk management clauses
- Negotiating risk-related terms

Module 4: Legal Considerations in Financial Risk

- Legal implications of financial risks
- Liability and indemnity clauses
- Regulatory compliance in contracts

Module 5: Contract Performance and Risk Management

- Performance monitoring techniques
- Identifying early warning signals
- Metrics for tracking and managing risk

Module 6: Communication and Stakeholder Management

- Communicating risks clearly to stakeholders
- Engaging financial and legal experts
- Inclusive decision-making in risk strategy

Module 7: Case Studies and Practical ApplicationsTraining Language:*Training Methodology:

The course combines various teaching methods, including instructor-led presentations, group discussions, case study analyses, and assessments through quizzes and a final exam to engage participants and ensure they understand and retain the material.

Venue | Date | Fees

Riyadh | 28-09-2025 | 17,250 SAR

- Analysis of real-world contract failures
- Key lessons from industry-specific scenarios
- Simulation of risk assessment applications

Module 8: Trends and Future of Risk Management in Contracts

- Emerging financial risk trends
- Role of technology in risk assessment
- Preparing for future risk challenges

Who Should Attend:

- Contract Managers
- Procurement Officers
- Legal Professionals in Contract Management
- Risk Management Specialists