Course Overview:

Many accidents and incidents are caused by unsafe behavior of people in both management and in the workforce. In this course we will look in-basic level at the factors that impact on human errors and related behavioral aspects.

Course Objective:

- Be able to observe and implementing behavior at work
- Know why people are prepared to take unnecessary risk
- Know how to change at risk behavior
- Know how to introduce these tools into their organization
- How improve risk perception within the organization
- Know what safety culture is and how it is measured
- Know how to conduct a Safety Culture survey

Course Outline:

- Health & safety management system
- Human error and risk assessment techniques
- Importance of behavioral issues
- Impact of behavior on safety
- Behavior, safety culture and safety climate
- Behavioral improvement process
- Human factors and behavioral influences
- Behavioral change framework
- Personal action plans and the way ahead

Who Should Attend:

- All employees from all levels and disciplines in the organization who have HSE responsibilities within their role.
- No previous experience in health and safety or behavioral safety is necessary

Training Language:

English

Training Methodology:

- Presentation & Slides
- Audio Visual Aids
- Interactive Discussion
- Participatory Exercise
- Action Learning
- Class Activities
- Case Studies
- Workshops
- Simulation