

Managing Financial Crises

MF113

Course Overview:

This seminar focuses on financial and economic crisis, and in particular on its causes, the consequences for the real economy and the policy responses. We will address a variety of questions including the following: Which factors caused the recent financial crisis? Which mechanisms may have prolonged it? What are the economic consequences, and what kinds of policy

Course Objective:

- -Learn how to understand the financial and economic crisis
- -To know which factors caused the recent financial crisis

Course Outline:

- -The key facts of the financial and economic crisis
- -The causes of the financial crisis
- -Financial market
- -Global imbalances
- -How the issue turned global.
- -The role of securitization
- -Bad incentives vs. mispricing
- -The crash: How the meltdown in the housing market lead to the freezing of credit
- -How the financial crisis became an economic crisis

Who Should Attend:

- -Financial professionals from all sectors, who wish to test their high performance and high potential knowledge, skills, and attitudes will benefit from attending this training session
- -Similarly other Professionals and Functional personnel, who wish to refresh their financial knowledge base, will obtain a more integrative financial overview

Page: 1 | 1

Training Language:

EN / AR

Training Methodology:

- -Presentation & Slides
- -Audio Visual Aids
- -Interactive Discussion
- -Participatory Exercise
- -Action Learning
- -Class Activities
- -Case Studies
- -Workshops
- -Simulation

