

Course Overview:

The main requirement for employers is to conduct suitable and sufficient risk assessments. Indeed, risk assessments program is the primary starting point for establishing a safer working environment and building a successful and sustainable safety culture organization/company. This course is very essential not only for the company who want to comply with the legislation but for the companies that are striving to be more successful through developing, implement and maintaining the Occupation health and Safety Management system which foster to achieve zero harm workplace.

Course Objective:

- Have a decision making tool to help him/her to protect his/her own safety and safety of others by effectively identify and control workplace hazards.
- Have the ability to contribute both in maintaining a safe work environment.
- Understand the legal requirements for hazard identification, reporting and control.
- Understand the principles of risk assessment and risk management at the workplace

Course Outline:

- Terminologies used in Risk Assessment & Risk Management.
- Benefits of Hazard Identification.
- Sources of hazards at hazards at the workplace.
- Understand the difference types of risk assessments. (Baseline Risk Assessment, Issue Based Risk Assessment & JHA (Job Safety Assessment)).
- Hazard identification techniques (Structured what if SWIF).
- Types of hazards at any workplace.
- The hierarchy of Hazard Controls.
- Steps of risk assessment.

Who Should Attend:

This course is relevant to Supervisors, Safety Officers, HSE Representatives, Managers

Training Language:

EN / AR

Training Methodology:

- Presentation & Slides
- Audio Visual Aids
- Interactive Discussion
- Participatory Exercise
- Action Learning
- Class Activities
- Case Studies
- Workshops
- Simulation