

Course Overview:

The aim of this course is to get familiar with elements of a successful construction safety program and also, define the basic principles of safety. Moreover the course explains the causes of accidents using accident causation models, the principles of safety performance measurement, identifying and appreciate the classifications of hazardous areas and the principles of the prevention of manual handling injuries

Course Objective:

- Identify elements of a successful construction safety program
- Define the basic principles of safety
- Explain the causes of accidents using accident causation models
- Identify the hazards and risks associated with a development of a safe system of work
- The application of ergonomics and the role of human factors
- The principles of safety performance measurement
- Identify and appreciate the classifications of hazardous areas
- The principles of the prevention of manual handling injuries

Course Outline:

- Safety management system.
- Proactive risk management.
- Incident prevention
- Work permit system
- Safe operation of equipment
- Evolution of safety management
- Accident reporting
- Protective clothes
- Respiratory system protection
- Proactive safety management and the principles of performance measurement
- Principles of risk assessment and control
- The principles of human factors and industrial psychology
- Fundamental principles of occupational ergonomics
- Safety principles and techniques

Who Should Attend:

Safety professionals, risk manager, regulators and enforcement officers who may have to oversee certain classifications of investigations.

Training Language:

EN / AR

Training Methodology:

- Presentation & Slides
- Audio Visual Aids
- Interactive Discussion
- Participatory Exercise
- Action Learning
- Class Activities
- Case Studies
- Workshops
- Simulation